Immanuel's Christian Library Feature of Week:

"The Christian Job Hunter" by Pamela J. Moran is a step-by-step guide to career planning. If you're out of a job, or thinking about making a career change, this book can provide you with a proven strategy for finding the job that's right for you. The author provides step-by-step advice to help you define your career goals, identify your skills, learn how to interview and to convince your prospective employer that you are the right person for the job. Finding the right job involves more than checking want ads or sending out resumes. It involves an informed and purposeful search, one that can lead to the kind of work that puts your God-given skills and abilities to best use. If you've ever lost a job or been out of work for more than a few days, you know that your faith in God's care for you can be put to the test. At such times it is easy to become anxious, self-critical, and even depressed. "The Christian Job Hunter" offers help for overcoming these and other problems.

Announcements & Notices

“Food For Life” Weekend was last week!

Mariel Broffman and Chuck Sista, representatives of the Salvation Army, arrived first thing this past Monday to receive your kind offerings, which will help stock their Food Pantry. Both Mariel and Chuck were overwhelmed with the amount of food donated by our church—exactly 279 lbs. They told us that the demand for food and hot meals at their Soup Kitchen has increased dramatically in recent months; thus a great need to restock their shelves. They both asked that our congregation be thanked for our generosity. Remember, we will receive “First Fruits” donations of food the first weekend of each month—next drive is May 2 & 3, and those donations will also be given the local chapter of the Salvation Army.

John Heiti, Stewardship Chair

Deborah Circle will meet Monday, April 13th, 3:00 PM. The Bible study will be “How God Uses Ordinary Women to Change the World.”

All women are invited to join the Circle as they journey through history to explore and learn from women of the Bible and beyond who have influenced the world.
