Immanuel Christian Library

Feature this week (Fiction)

"A Voice In The Wind" by Francine Rivers was reviewed by best selling author, Gilbert Monis. He states: From time to time a novel will appear that changes the course of Christian fiction." He thinks this book has that power. "A Voice In The Wind" is moving and powerful. Though set in the first century this is the most modern novel I've read in years. The "Modern" problems that fill the newspapers and talk shows today, all glare under the sun in Rome during her dying years: homosexuality, violence, corruption in high government, rebellious youth, the demise of the middle class—all plagued Rome, even as they are now destroying America from within. And the answer this novel presents for these things? The gospel of Jesus Christ. Nothing more than this—and nothing less.

Join the Visiting Committee

Additional teams are needed for the Visiting Committee. Teams of two make a 30-minute social call on one or two Immanuel households each week. The purpose of this committee is to foster a stronger connection within the entire Immanuel family. It's friendly, it's fun, and it's a great way to serve. If you like talking with people, I'd like to talk with you. Call Judith Holley at (772) 545-4106.
